DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is regarding Applicant's response filed 16 June 2009 to a prior Office action. Claims 118-152 are pending. Claims 1-117 and 153-161 are cancelled.
2. This Office Action is a First Action, Allowance after an RCE.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 118-152 are allowed, as amended in Applicant's Response filed 16 June 2009.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The prior art of record does not disclose:

Jones et al. (US 6,199,098 A1) teaches in the same field of the invention which is indexing dynamically generated links. Jones et al. teaches sending network site content to remote clients in response to received requests from client, the requests being parameters determining dynamically generated content [column 2, lines 27-57]. Analyzing of accessed data files is also taught in the reference through the method of navigating through electronically stored information [column 3, lines 19-20]. Jones et al. goes on to teach identifying valid parameters for dynamically generating content [column 3, lines 36-37]. Reference also teaches encoded links for accessing dynamically generated content [column 3, lines 41-42] and indexing [column 3, line 21], but does not teach the combination and steps as recited in independent claim 118, of:

generating, based on said analyzing, data representing nodes of a hierarchy of linked nodes for use in indexing content of said network site, wherein leaf nodes of said hierarchy include alternative links for use in accessing said dynamically generated content, each of said alternative links being adapted for use in determining a corresponding link and one or more corresponding parameters that, in combination with the corresponding link, determine corresponding dynamic content of said network site; and sending the generated data to a user agent.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
